

Astrology for Marriage

Marriage is one of the most important decisions of life. Hence it is important to find out the compatibility between the couples. Astrology for marriage gives details about the match, the details about the ups and downs in your married life, the amount of love between the couples, sexual compatibility, chances of divorce and so on.

The chief importance is given to the moon's position and aspects in case of a male horoscope and the sun's position in case of a female horoscope. The configuration of the two connotes the happiness of married life.

When sun and moon are harmoniously configured in the horoscope of birth by being two signs or four signs (60 or 120 degrees) apart, and therefore, in the sextile or trine aspect to one another, or even in conjunction when well placed by the chief planets, there will be harmony and happiness in the marital life.

On the other hand, when the luminaries are in quadrature or opposition or in conjunction or badly placed, there will be discord and trouble. The degree of discord and trouble is dependent on the power of adaptation. The lack of power of adaptation is chief cause of incompatibility of temperament.
